When poets wrote of woman's sphere as being without walls, we should have known the ballot box would be a more fitting place for her. But woman is still adding the right touch to many of the things that are going on in the world. MORE FEMALE HELP WANTED ADS than ALL the other St. Louis newspapers combined.

Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria Made Commander in Chief of German Forces on the Somme Front.

Russians Press Forward in Carpathians and Rumanians Report Progress in Transylvania Advance.

PARIS, Sept. 12.—French troops on the Macedonian front, taking the offensive against the Bulgarians, have captured all the positions of their opponents on a front of two miles to a depth of about 800 yards, it was announced officially today.

The announcement for the first time "On the Struma front British troops engaged in violent fighting, during which the village of Nevojen was taken by assault."

"In the region of Lake Doiran the artillery duel continues sharply."

"Our batteries effectively bombarded Bulgarian positions in the sector of Makedonski, west of the Vardar. A vigorous offensive of allied troops north of Makedonski gave excellent results. All Bulgarian trenches were charged on a front of two miles and a depth of about 800 yards. We took some prisoners. West of Lake Ostrovo Serbian artillery displayed great activity in the region of the Balkans. South of the Lake partial engagements enabled us to obtain some advantage. A Bulgarian attack which was repulsed by our fire caused heavy losses to the enemy."

PRINCE RUPPRECHT
PUT IN COMMAND OF SOMME FRONT

Bavarian to Have General Charge of Operations Against Allied Offensive.

BERLIN, via London, Sept. 12.—Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria has now assumed the over-command of the German armies on the Somme front. He is entrusted with the general direction of operations against the Anglo-French offensive. All troops assigned to this task are placed under his control, making possible the distribution of reserves and the employment of all the means of war to the best advantage under a unified plan.

The appointment of Prince Rupprecht was effective before the latest visit of an Associated Press correspondent to Bapaume last week, but the announcement was not made until the announcement in the official army headquarters report of yesterday, which reveals a general reorganization of commands brought about by the appointment of Field Marshal von Hindenburg as chief of staff.

The new order divides the western front into three sectors and assigns them to three principal commanders, who, regardless of reasons of policy, are regarded here not as figureheads, but as Generals of experience and distinction.

Duke Albrecht, prospective heir to the kingdom of Württemberg, who is in command of the northern sector, before the war had been chief of the German general staff.

The first northward thrust through Belgium, Crown Prince Rupprecht's forces, which crossed the river have set back Bulgarian positions on the east bank.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—A dispatch to Lloyd's of Genoa says that 41 members of the crew of the Norwegian steamer Elizabeth II, 1,415 tons, had been landed at Savona by the Greek steamer Petritia.

MACHINISTS HERE TO DEMAND 8-HOUR DAY

1800 Vote to Strike Unless Demands Are Met by Em-

About 1800 machinists voted to strike at a mass meeting last night at New Club Hall, Thirteenth street and Chow grant demands to be made before the end of the week for an eight-hour work

A strike of the machinists would affect about 4500 workmen employed in 25 shops and factories in the city. About William Hannon of Washington, D. C., a member of the executive board of the machinists' union, addressed the meeting and told the local men strikes or their fellow craftsmen were in progress or in contemplation all over the country in a general movement of the machinists to get the shorter day. He advised the men that the best time to strike is during a prosperous season.

Hannon and other speakers at the meeting applauded President Wilson and Congress for the recent passage of the eight-hour law for trainmen.

GLASS OF WATER BEFORE YOU EAT YOUR BREAKFAST

Wash poison from system each morning, and feel fresh as a daisy.

Every day you clean the house you live in to get rid of the dust and dirt which collected through the previous day. Your body the house your soul lives in, also becomes filled up each twenty-four hours with all manner of filth and poison. If only every man and woman could realize the wonders of drinking phosphated hot water, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

Everyone, whether sick or well, should drink, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.—ADV.

NO RELIEF FROM INTENSE ITCHING
Tells of "Wonderful Cure" by Resinol. "I had eczema in the worst way for six months. A small pimple on my right wrist kept spreading until it was up to my elbows. It came out in spots and some places were like water blisters. The itching was intense and I had no relief whatever. My fingers were all covered with cracks and pains were very bad. My hands and arms were all scales. The burning was so bad it felt as if I had been turned to a blister and the blister rubbed off. I could hear about including many prescriptions, but had no relief. As a last resort I tried Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. The itching STOPPED AT ONCE. Before I had used Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap three days the redness had all gone. I could sleep nights—no itching or burning—and I felt like a new woman. People who knew me when I had this trouble were surprised at the wonderful cure." (Signed) Mrs. J. S. Walker, 97 Bartlett St., Charleston, Boston, Mass. Aug. 26.

HUGHES ENDS PRESENT CAMPAIGN TRIP TODAY

Outlines in Speeches in Syracuse His Views for Protecting Americans Abroad.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Charles E. Hughes came back to his home State yesterday to campaign. He addressed two audiences here, one at the State fair grounds, the other at a dinner at night, given in his honor by the Syracuse allied clubs. At the dinner he outlined his views on American enterprise. "I have no sympathy," he said, "with those who look askance upon carrying the American name and American investment to foreign lands. We should take pride in every extension of our commerce and the enterprise of our citizens which takes them to other lands. So long as they peacefully conduct their honest business, it is the duty of the United States to protect their lives and property and American rights under international law.

"There is no other way for American progress. It is perfectly idle to suppose that we can have an enduring peace and prosperity if we do not have an intense patriotic sentiment dominant throughout our land, demanding that the rights of our citizens shall be respected."

Mr. Hughes reiterated his declaration that he had done his part toward correcting abuses in the past. "And I should do it again," he declared, "as zealously and virilely as I know how, if confronted with any abuse that needs correction."

"We have got to have a splendid stimulus in American patriotism," he added. "We have got to feel the thrill of national obligation, we have got to revive the old spirit that gave us our country and saved our country; we have got to take pride in American achievement throughout the world; we have got to foster every American industry that needs it; we have got to be so bound up in our patriotic desire for success that is the only great idea above all others."

Mr. Hughes received the returns from the Maine election while at dinner and evinced his satisfaction. He departed for Plattsburg to make the last address of his present campaign trip. William N. Wilcox, Republican National Chairman, joined the nominee here.

Hughes at Plattsburg, Pleased With the Election in Maine.
PLATTSBURGH, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Charles E. Hughes spent today, the last day of his first presidential campaign trip, in Plattsburg. He reached here shortly before 1 p. m. and visited the military training camp. Tonight he will speak in a hall here. This is his statement concerning the Maine election: "I am deeply gratified by the result in Maine. We shall go forward with renewed confidence."

Hughes to Speak in Two Illinois Towns on Sept. 19.
NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Announcement was made here today at Republican national headquarters that arrangements have been made for Charles E. Hughes to speak at Springfield and Peoria, Ill., on Sept. 19.

SETTLEMENT OF BERNERO WILL CONTEST BEING CONSIDERED Continuance Granted to Executor in Maine Report on Assets Tipped Statement by Attorney.

Negotiations for settlement of the Bernero will contest case are pending. It was reported by counsel yesterday to Probate Judge Holtcamp. A continuance was granted the St. Louis Union Trust Co., as executor, in making a report of the assets preparatory to turning over the estate to an administrator pendente lite.

The contest as started in behalf of Louis Bernero, 18 years old, of 600 Maple avenue, for the entire estate of the late Mrs. Teresa Bernero, valued at $100,000, was the plaintiff was the son of the late Emanuel Bernero, who was an adopted son of the testatrix and her husband, Louis Bernero, also dead. To the boy was bequeathed $10,000 for his education and the residue of the estate was left to collateral relatives of Mrs. Bernero.

Counsel in the case declined to discuss terms of the proposed settlement but it was said that the defense was willing to concede about $7,000 to the boy, in addition to the bequest to him in the will, while his counsel demand that the compromise should be for not less than $20,000.

WATCHMAN BEATS CHAUFFEUR WITH BUTT OF HIS REVOLVER

Says He Thought Prisoner was About to Draw Weapon, Spectators Are Indignant.

Gershon Moses, a watchman, was threatened with violence by West End residents at 8:30 p. m. yesterday when he beat John Hagen, a chauffeur, of 4523 Clayton avenue, with the handle of his revolver after arresting Hagen for careless driving at Euclid and Maryland avenues.

Hagen, who is employed by John Sloan of 3838 Delmar boulevard, had run down Edward White, 14 years old, a negro, who was riding a bicycle. The boy was not injured. Moses arrested Hagen, who asked permission to lock his car before going to the police station. Hagen reached under a seat and Moses later said he believed Hagen intended to draw a revolver and, therefore, he attacked him. After his scalp wounds were treated at the dispensary Hagen was taken to the Newstead Avenue Station and charged with careless driving. He was released on bond.

Are Indignant.

ARLISS SHOWS GREAT POWER IN "PAGANINI"

New Play Is Based on Career of Famous Italian Violinist.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The new play which has fallen to George Arliss' share is "Paganini," by Edward Knoblauch, which has for its central character the famous Italian musician of the early part of the last century. The play opened at the Criterion Theater last night.

This rather commonplace setting contains, in the character of Paganini and in the acting of Arliss, a gem of great brilliancy. Historically, his performance is one of these feats of eccentric character impersonation which the stage nowadays rarely presents. In illuminating detail, in the complete subordination of the actor's personality, in perfect finish and mastery, in mood and expedients for denoting it, "Paganini" approaches easily to the extraordinary. Arliss has established a clear ideal as clear-cut as a cameo—and has remained faithful to it throughout. By this artistic integrity he asserts his claim to being a great artist, and by it he also redeems a play which never secures a very firm foothold in the sympathies.

Arliss was seen in recent seasons in "The Devil" and "Disraeli."

Elsie Pilcer and Partner Hit of Strong Columbia Bill.

Although the novel little sketch "Overtones," is advertised as the leading feature of the vaudeville bill at the Columbia Theater this week, it by no means ranks first in what is one of the best programs ever offered at the Sixth street playhouse. "Overtones," which was first done in New York in the later meant to be more or less novel if not eccentric in its production, is too tall for the usual vaudeville audience, which probably fails at first to grasp the idea that four women who do the talking really represent but two women, the other two characters being the hidden, primitive, inner selves of the pair who greet each other with smiles, but actually hate each other. "Overtones," however, is well done by Helen Lackaye and her little company, and it is set in a very modern, or perhaps ultra-modern, manner.

First place on the bill should go to Elsie Pilcer—yes, sister—and Dudley Douglas, in a dancing and singing act presented by brother Harry, and patterned and gowned pretty closely after the latter's performances with Gaby Deslys. Next comes sweet and dainty Josie Heather, in a number of English songs which the English themselves call "blue," but which are never offensive. One of the hits of the performance is scored unexpectedly by the piano player who accompanies Miss Heather, who, without a word of warning or announcement on the program, sings a little song of his own. "The Dancing Girl of Delhi" is pretentious and pleasing.

"Old Town" at Park Theater, Sparkling Comedy Production.

George Ade's comedy lines, and the dancing and singing of the Park Theater stock company, make up a sparkling production which the Park management offered last night under the title, "Polles of the Old Town." The dialogue and some of the songs and specialties are from "The Old Town," formerly played by Montgomery and Stone. Tightrope walking and lariat twirling have been added to the accomplishments of regular members of the Park company, for this show. Roger Gray and Mack Whiting made several welcome appearances in different guises. Gray's appearance, in Highland kilts, was slightly suggestive of the cave man, but the smooth and gleaming knees of the members of the chorus, also kilted, kept the eye from dwelling too long on the comedian's shaggy limbs.

Billy Kent appeared as a mountain climber, whose greatest achievement was the scaling of a peak familiar to St. Louisans. Several sentimental songs were interspersed with the comedy. Misses Bertha Black and Adele Koch being two of the soloists. It appeared at first that two of the most attractive members of the cast were not going to get much of an opportunity, but toward the end Florence Mackie made a radiant appearance in a song, and Janet McIlwain got out of slavery togs and into a becoming gown. Carl Haydon's singing was robust and well received, and Harry Fender danced most divertingly.

"PENNY ANTE" MUSICAL COMEDY

Marquette Club to Produce Play Inspired by Cartoons.

"Penny Ante," a musical comedy inspired by the cartoons drawn for the Post-Dispatch by Jean Knott, and written by members of the Marquette Club, an organization of girls and young men of the Holy Angels Church, will be presented tomorrow night in Holy Angels Hall, St. Ange avenue and La Salle street.

The production, which is being directed by the Rev. Father W. F. Mullaly, pastor of the church, contains bright lines and good music. In the cast are Al Mayer, Ray Teasdale, Emmet O'Brien, Babe Devoy, Charles Foster, James McKee, Will Keneally, Patrick Mullally, Joseph Burke, Tuck Sylvester, Young Foley and the Misses Margaret and Mary Flanagan, Rose Gulton, M. and O'Connell, Margaret O'Brien, Silvia Sheppard.

FORMER MANAGER SUES STORE

William Goyder Wants $11,000 Salary and $15,000 Stock From Lindell.

William Goyder yesterday sued the Lindell Dry Goods Co. and John D. Davis for $11,000 on a contract by which he was to be general manager of the Lindell department store, Eighth street and Washington avenue, for three years at $25 a month, beginning Feb. 1, 1915. Goyder says he was removed May 1, 1916. Goyder says he was to receive $15,000 of stock at the end of the third year the company was doing gross annual business of $1,500,000 and earning a profit of 5 per cent. He also asks for judgment for this stock.

Davis is out of the city, but his attorney, J. Lionberger Davis, said his father sold his interest in the business last spring and that the new owners did not continue Goyder as manager.

CHECK REFUSED, SALESMAN HELD

Kansas City Man Says He Had Spent Money Wife Helped Save.

C. T. Winn, a Kansas City shoe salesman, is held by the police for attempting to pass a check for $27 on Scruggs-Vandervoort & Barney yesterday afternoon in payment for two pairs of shoes. The check, on the Boatmen's Bank, payable to David C. Winter, was signed "A. B. Griedelbeck" and the cashier of the store was told it was worthless. Winn said his trouble was caused by the loss of $100, which his wife had helped him save, in speculating in wheat without her knowledge.

How to Prevent Acid Stomach and Food Fermentation

BY A NEW YORK PHYSICIAN.

"My experience in the treatment of stomach diseases has forced me to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach trouble possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble, that which causes all the pain and difficulty, is excessive acid in the stomach, aggravated by food fermentation. Hyperacidity irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, causing that full bloated feeling. Thus both acid and fermentation interfere with and retard the process of digestion. The stomach is usually healthy and normal, but irritated almost past endurance by these foreign elements—acid and wind. In all cases—and they comprise a great majority of all stomach difficulties—the first and most necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by means of a healthy warm or cold water immediately after meals from one to two teaspoonsful of bicarbonate of soda, which is the most effective antacid and food corrective I have ever found. And your stomach will at once proceed to digest the food in a healthy normal manner. I have recommended this bicarbonate of soda to my druggist for bicarbonate of soda, which is recommended for acid stomach conditions.—ADV.

FAIRBANKS SPEAKS FOR HIGH TARIFF IN SPRINGFIELD, MO.

Former Vice President Heard by 3000 Strongly Advocates a Merchant Marine.

By George W. Eads,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 12.—Charles Warren Fairbanks, Republican candidate for Vice President, spoke here last night before an audience liberally estimated at 3000, declaring himself to be in favor of the re-enactment of a Republican high tariff and for the rehabilitation of the merchant marine.

Fairbanks was sent to Missouri by the Republican National Committee at the urgent request of the Republican State Committee, as a drawing card for the State campaign opening, and also to counteract the effect of the visit of Vice President Marshall, also of Indiana, who will be one of the principal speakers at the Democratic campaign opening at Joplin today.

Fairbanks is popular with the party leaders in Missouri. The convention hall in which he spoke was only partly filled when he began speaking and many hundreds left the hall before he closed.
When he began discussing the protective tariff issue it was noticeable that groups of men left from every section of the hall.

Speaks Today in Oklahoma.

Fairbanks left immediately after delivering his speech here for Oklahoma City, where he will speak today before the Republican State convention. He will make several other speeches in Oklahoma, and then make a tour of Kansas.
The vice presidential candidate was accompanied by his son, Richard, and Joseph Keating, one of the Indiana leaders. National Committeeman Jacob L. Butler and Dwight F. Davis of St.
Louis came with him from St. Louis to Springfield.

Fairbanks said that he had hastened from Maine to Missouri to open his campaign here among the Missourians, who are so much like his own Indiana Hoosiers. The only pronounced applause which greeted any of his utterances was when he announced that early returns from Maine indicated the Republicans had carried the State by 10,000 to 12,000 majority.

"You feel good at that news, and I feel good, too," he added, "because that result was accomplished despite the fact that I spoke in the State."

Fairbanks criticized the Democratic ship purchase bill, and declared that it was a burning shame that American merchants had disappeared from the seas. He said that the Republicans were in favor of rebuilding the merchant marine, and that the ships should be built in America, by American labor. He offered no plan for this task.

A typewritten statement, given out by the Fairbanks campaign managers, stated that no one in the Republican party was better informed on the tariff than Fairbanks, and that he believed the tariff issue was one of the most important and vital questions in the campaign. Since the McKinley tariff, it was stated, Fairbanks has had an important part in framing every Republican tariff bill.

Fairbanks said that one of the first things the Democratic party did, upon taking over the Government, was to overturn the Republican protective tariff system. One of the first results, he said, was that the revenues were so greatly diminished that the Democrats had to enact laws placing special tax burdens upon the people.

"The Democratic tariff law promptly did its perfect work," he said. "It began to undermine confidence, breed distrust, reduce the public revenue, close factories, throw out of employment hundreds of thousands of wage earners, and to stimulate the charity organizations, and increased bread lines in many cities of the country. The old days of 1888 seemed to have come again. Despair was fast taking hold of our people. You will bear me witness that I do not overdraw the dismal colors of this picture; I bring no unsubstantiated indictment against the Democratic party."

Says War Favored Democrats.

Fairbanks said the Democrats were favored by a great world cataclysm, and that the prosperity of the country in its entirety is due to the fact that the traffic in war munitions. The factories, which had been closed by the Democratic policy, were reopened for the manufacture of munitions, he asserted, and the railroads which had been forced into idleness were quickened to meet new demands by the exigencies of war. He asserted that the prosperity growing out of the war was purely accidental.
"Democratic prosperity," Fairbanks continued, "is a thing of the past. The Republican prosperity grows out of the normal and peaceful industries of the people; it is a prosperity which abides. Democratic prosperity will vanish as a mist before the morning sun, when the articles of peace are concluded between the neighboring countries abroad; the places where Democratic prosperity has prevailed will wear a changed aspect.
The orders from Europe for powder, dynamite, shells and shrapnel, which have made thousands of mills in Europe, will cease; the golden currents which have been flowing hither for these weary and tragic months will stop; the industrial world will hesitate and inquire: What of the future?"

"Our industrial defenses are broken down and an industrial war is at hand.
No man of rational judgment fails to see that when the thousands of men who were withdrawn from the avenues of peace are returned to the industrial field, supplemented by many well-trained women who have learned the mechanical arts, they will enter the lists for industrial supremacy to meet the tax burdens which the country puts upon them or to provide for their industrial households. How will this under the Democratic policy affect labor and capital? The contest will be different from any with which we have been confronted since the Crimean war.

"There is in my judgment but one course for us to pursue in the emergency which lies before us, and that is to reinstatement the Republican party and its well-tested policies. The people know that they stand for America against the world, that they are the bulwark of American labor, the sure support of our industrial progress. There is no other way which has the sanction of our confidence."

Nugent's Millinery Opening

World-renowned artist-designers, who determine what shall be "au fait" in the realm of Fashion, have contributed their choicest inspirations for this event. We show the smartest and "realist" types of the Parisian milliner's art, including the always charming creations of Caroline Reboux, Suzanne Talbot, Jeanne Lanvin, Evelyn Varon, Maria Gny, Louison, Lewis, Carlier, also Waters, Tappe and other noted New York modistes.

However, in our search for correct and artistic millinery, whether in Paris or New York, we were guided not so much by names and labels as by REAL art, REAL beauty, REAL merit and REAL originality of design and style. This, we believe will interest and appeal to discriminating and fashionable women far more than the custom of influencing them by mere names and labels.

Big Hats are bigger than ever. Small Hats, smaller. And everything is characterized by that "charm of simplicity," which is always the touch and mark of real genius. This genius, wherever found, is reflected in the daring new turns, the wide brims, the saucy cockades, or the very striking military effects, also in the quaint Chinese, Russian, Spanish or Ecclesiastic adaptations.

Opening Continues Throughout This Week, COME.

ANTI-WAR ADVOCATES ARRESTED

Two Italians Accused of Organizing Demonstrations for Sept. 24.

ROME, Sept. 12.—Morara and Pinotti, officers of the Italian Young Men's Socialist churches, have been charged with organizing anti-war demonstrations in Italy and other countries for Sept. 24. In the house where the men were arrested the police seized 50,000 copies of an anti-military manifesto which was intended for distribution among the soldiers at the front.

Morara and Pinotti are said to be working in conjunction with the National Young Men's Socialist Association which has its headquarters at Zurich. Isaac Schwelb, who claims to be an Argentinean, and who was expected from Italy last year, is head of the Zurich bureau.

Indoor Life Makes Fat

TRY OIL OF KOREIN TO KEEP WEIGHT DOWN, OR TO REDUCE SUPERFLUOUS FAT.

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh invigorating air and exercise must take precaution to guard against over-stoutness, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body. Lack of exercise in the carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to produce strong muscular vitality, and the formation of unsightly and unhealthy fat is the result.

If you are 15 or 20 pounds above normal weight you are daily drawing on your reserve strength and are constantly lowering your vitality by carrying this excess burden. Any person who is so afflicted is advised to get a box of oil of korein capsules and take one after each meal and one just before retiring at night.

Even a few days treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight. Improved digestion and a regularity of the old energy; footstools become lighter and the digestion wanes. The appearance of superfluous fat disappears. Oil of korein is inexpensive, cannot injure and helps the digestion. Many persons who want to reduce 15 or 20 pounds advised to give this treatment a trial.

ILLINOIS PRIMARY CAMPAIGN ENDS TODAY

Interest on Both Sides Centers in the Fight for Governor—Close Contest Expected.

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—The Illinois primary campaign, which closed today, is regarded by political observers as perhaps the most hotly contested in the history of the State.

While there are fewer candidates for office than at the last State primary, there are apparently more close contests. The candidates for State offices alone have expended $2,500,000 in their campaigns, according to an estimate made by Fayette S. Munro of Highland Park, a candidate for the Republican nomination for Attorney-General.

Principal interest centers in the three-cornered fight between Frank C. Lowden of Oregon, Frank L. Smith of Dwight, and State Senator Morton D. Hull of Chicago for the Republican nomination for Governor.

Next in interest is the fight over the Republican nomination for Attorney-General between Edward J. Brundage of Chicago, Richard J. Barr of Joliet, Fayette S. Munro of Highland Park, George H. Wilson of Quincy, Medill McCormack of Chicago and E. M. Chippendale of Canton, candidates for the Republican nomination for Congressmen-at-large, have the support of the regular State and county organizations.

Former United States Senator William Lorimer, with the regular organization and many of his former influential friends against him, is making a determined effort to come back politically by seeking for the Republican nomination in the Sixth District which he represented in Congress for four terms. He is opposed by Arthur W. Fulton and five other candidates.

On the Democratic side the chief interest is in the contest between Gov. Edward F. Dunne of Chicago and William B. Brinton of Dixon for the gubernatorial nomination. Brinton has the backing of Roger C. Sullivan and the regular Democratic organization in Chicago and a number of leaders down State, while Dunne is supported by the anti-Sullivan forces in Chicago and throughout the State.

The fight for Lieutenant-Governor is between Barrett O'Hara of Chicago, the incumbent, and Henry W. Huttman of Chicago, who is backed by the regular organization. Secretary of State Lewis G. Stevenson of Bloomington is expected for renomination by Barth P. Collins of Chicago.

Tomorrow Will Be the Last Day of Famous-Barr Co.'s Formal Fall Opening

In other words, the new season has actually begun, and everything new and novel, rich and beautiful, has been provided for your pleasure and satisfaction. There are many features about this opening display in marked contrast to the ordinary type of Fall opening. The first point (one that you can't help observing) is the abundant variety. A Fall opening should mean readiness; it should mean that every section of the store is prepared to supply every Fall and Winter need. But how often do you find that it really applies to one or two departments only? Not so here. The entire store is in perfect accord—it presents the idea of Fall Readiness in practical, understandable form.

And what a remarkable collection of new things this great store houses! New apparel of all kinds—with all the fashion frills and furbelows of the best French and American designers. Millinery, both quaint and curious. Blouses that are almost transparent, but delectably dainty with their profusion of ruffles and frills. Saucy little boots, with their pointed toes and contrasting tops. Neckwear that recalls the pictures of long ago. Dress fabrics—both silk and wool—and the trimmings that go with them. And so many, many other things—including home needs, kiddies' things and wearables for father and the boys.

Truly, a remarkable display—as practical as it is beautiful. And tomorrow will be the day for you to see it.

The Charm of This New Millinery Is Not All a Matter of Beauty

The practical features should not be overlooked, for they are the points that make real value. The French Room, for example, is showing many attractive groups that have been accurately designed from the original Paris models; but every model has been chosen with special regard for the needs of American women. Thus, this display differs from the ordinary—it emphasizes beauty without carrying it to the extreme point, and it is the most noteworthy display of its kind that a St. Louis store has ever attempted.

These French Room models are in chic combinations of Lyons and Pansé Velvet, hatters' plush and Lyons velvet, chenille and velvet, and the very new Barry taffeta and velvet. Priced from..... $12 to $65

All the New Untrimmed Hats
Hundreds of shapes and styles—including the new angle Hats, the popular tams, the dainty turbans and the wide sailors..... $1.45 to $12

And the pretty Hats of our own designers—carrying out the American idea in a more pronounced way—carefully made, handsomely trimmed..... $7.50 to $20

So Many Pretty Trimmings
The newer kinds. Gold and silver ornaments, metal bugs, and beetles, cabochons, breasts, al-grette effects and jet novelties..... 48c to $3.98

The New Fur Trimmings Are a Feature of These Suits—Unusual Suits at $24.75

Why are they unusual? Because of the quality! Scarcity of materials—of dyes—of everything that enters into Suit making has sent prices upward; but in these special Suits you will get the full measure of genuine quality at a lower price than you would ordinarily expect to pay.

Style, of course, is an important point. It is evidenced in the lines of the garments—in the pleated and gathered effects—in the seasonable fur trimmings and in the application of richly colored velvet.

And the serviceable serges, rich broadcloths, soft, woolly velours, fashionable poplins and gabardines compose as desirable a group of fabrics as any woman could possibly wish for.

New shades of gray, brown, blue—and the new Burgundy—and, of course, black. Misses' sizes 14, 16, 18 and 20. Women's sizes 34 to 44. Better Suits in every way at $24.75.

And there are other new styles at all prices up to $125.

J. H. TYSON, NOTED AS AUTO

SPEEDER, WEDS THIRD TIME

Rich Connecticut Man Gets License Clerk and Justice of Peace Put of Bed for Marriage

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—John H. Tyne, of Riverside, Conn., who probably has figured in more automobile accidents than speeding than almost any other motorist in the country, and has been twice married previously, was wedded by a Justice of the Peace late Sunday afternoon at Greenwich under conditions involving his character.

Tyson's bride is a pretty young woman, whose name appears in the license and marriage certificate as Rose Butler. The only other person mentioned in the license is the groom, John A. Tyson.

John H. Tyson, who is about 35 years old, is the grandson of the late George Tyson, who founded the Tyson theater ticket business and was prominent in the American News Co. The bulk of his substantial fortune went to the grandson, who recently inherited a major fortune from his aunt, Mrs. Fannie Hamilton. His first wife divorced him and the second died a year ago.

Steamer on Fire Races to Port.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 11.—Fire started in a shipment of excelsior in the steamer Beaver, bound from Portland for San Francisco when off the Mendocino coast early yesterday, and was smothered under battenedatches while the vessel raced to the port. When the hold was opened at the dock, 13 hours later, smoke poured out and four sailors were overcome while trying to reach the balsa.

A RESTAURANT IS A PLACE WHERE YOU DO YOUR EATING, NOT THINKING—BY GOLDBERG.

Old Si as a Violinist.

Said Silas McGuggin, in Peewee's store: "A braggart's a fellow who gets me real sore. This morning I heard Uncle Johnny McGuggin explaining how fine he can play the cornet. He did so much talking I turned up my nose. Says I: 'You're a wonder, I'm led to suppose.' And then I explained how I play the violin. I made Johnny's story sound terrible thin. When lonesome or blue," Silas said to the crowd, "I take down my fiddle and do myself proud. I scrape out the classics, not missing a note. Oh, I play the toughest that ever was wrote. One day a rich fellow, who runs a big show, called me a real genius. He meant it, by Joe! Says he: 'This Yase couldn't play like you do.' And men, what he told me was honest and true." "I heard you a-playin' one night last week," said Grandpa McGee, "so I'm fitted to speak. I thought 'twas a couple of cats in a fight. Yase couldn't do it—that fellow was right." Old Silas frowned deeply and said: "You're a fool. A man might as well play a piece for a mule. With that he went out, looking terribly mad. Said Grandpa: 'Si's right. These here braggarts is bad.'"

Don't Ever Let Anyone Tell You This as a New One

"When father got home last night he complained that his supper was cold."
"And what happened?"
"Mother made it hot for him."

Cautious With Bill.

"When Bill Bliffkins goes to church they always pass the contribution plate to him before anyone else."
"Why is that? Is he such a generous giver?"
"Not he. By passing it to him first they don't stand a chance of losing any thing but the empty plate."

Due to the Lawyers.

"The Sheriff tells me," remarked a visitor to a Western town, "that there hasn't been a prisoner in the county jail for over a year. That would seem to indicate that your community is unusually free from crime."
"Not necessarily," replied the native. "We've got some pretty slick lawyers around here."

No Wonder He Hit

COL. FIREBRAND, who commanded the Territorial battalion, which was the pride of the countryside, was paying a visit to the rifle butts. His comments on the firing were said in the extreme, and at last Capt. Sabres ventured a comment.
"Why don't you take a shot yourself, Colonel, just to show them how it should be done?"
The gallant officer did not seem to be particularly keen on the experiment, but all the same he borrowed Private Ramrod's rifle, took aim and fired. A tiny cloud of dust rose about 50 yards from the target, but in spite of this a bull's-eye was signaled. Again and again the same thing happened, and Private Ramrod received his rifle back with a few words as to the benefit of emulating a good example.
Then the private recommenced firing, and to his own surprise a bull's-eye was signaled. But his joy was somewhat dampened when he heard the raucous voice of Sgt. Smart calling to the marker: "Hi! What's the matter with you, Blockhead? The Colonel ain't firing now."—Tit-Bits.

Too Frank.

"Do you really think I'm pretty," she asked, poutingly.
"Of course not," said the man who always told the truth. "You've always too much power on, and your hair is generally mussed, and you wear extreme fashions and your ankles are too large. But she wasn't there to hear the finish."

Too Expensive.

"I see you've got a new chauffeur."
"Yes, I had to let the old one go."
"Incompetent?"
"No, not that. But my daughter fell in love with him, and he refused to elope like a respectable chauffeur. He wanted me to give them a church wedding."

Swift Justice.

"Who was it that said: 'Let me write the songs of a nation and I care not who makes the laws?'"
"I don't know, but if they'd let me make the laws I'd have some of these song writers in jail pretty doggoned quick."

A Fellow in Luck.

"I found a four-leaf clover on my lawn today."
"I suppose you think that's lucky?"
"I do. I'm lucky to find anything in that lawn except dandelions and ragweed."

Hits From Sharp Wits.

The man who takes a chance usually takes it as it is made—against him.

Who weighs well his words finds many so light that they are not worth utterance.

Looking backward, everyone can see how he could have made a lot of money.

A specialist commends yawning as a beneficial exercise for the throat. The bore may have uses after all.

Yes, vanity is in us born. We've noticed oft, alas! The carpet always is most worn before the looking glass.

The most nerve-racking automobile horn never disturbs the one blowing it—Pittsburgh Times.

No matter how good a man tries to be, the neighbors still think he ought to be better. "Virtue is its own reward."

"Horseless carriage" accidents are frequently due to the absence of horse sense.

"Eat an onion and go to bed," somebody advises; but whether friend or enemy we do not know.

The best time for a man to acquire a reputation for absolute truthfulness is after he has been a long time dead.

One or the Other.

First Farmer: What do you do with the waste?
Second Farmer: Well, you've got either to keep pigs or summer boarders.

The man who knows truly the least is always the one in the biggest hurry to tell it.

She Circumnavigated the Idea.

It was the first day of her first term of school, and the new teacher called up the class and asked a large girl to tell of Columbus' voyage.

"Well," said the girl, "Columbus started out and sailed around a dot."

"What?" said the astonished teacher.

"He sailed around a dot," repeated the girl. Pressed for her authority, she pointed triumphantly to the page in the book and the teacher read, "About this period Columbus sailed."—The Christian Herald.

Explained.

"Why does a beginner always win at cards?"

"He gets the game so mixed up that presently he has more of an idea of what's goin' on than anybody else at the table."—Washington Star.

A Hitch.

"How did community singing turn out in your neighborhood? The peasants are strong for it in Europe."

"Our ten-thousand-a-year peasants wouldn't mix with the five-thousand-a-year peasants."

Good Business.

"There's always a rift in the lute."

"So I have seen it stated. Must be money in repairing musical instruments."

Every man's a good loser when he's not losing.

An Ignoramus.

I wish you would try to be more like little Harold Jones next door, said Bobbie's mother. "His mother tells me that he is always at the head of his class."

"Cause he's teacher's pet, that's why," retorted Bobbie. "That kid ain't got any brains at all. Why, the poor fish don't even know Ty Cobb's battin' average."

His Diploma.

"What have you there?"

"A diploma from the school of experience."

"What do you mean?"

"A deed to a gold mine that isn't worth 2 cents."

Not the First.

"She (just kissed by him)?"

"How dare you? Papa said he would kill the first man who kissed me."

"He. How interesting. And did he do it?"—Judge.

No Relationship.
